7 brief red flags every editor knows.

SWIPE →

No reference, no example, no idea what "pop" means to the person who signs off.

CL Client 00:12

“Same as last time, but different.”

REPLY · RESOLVE

Which parts stay? Which change? Nobody knows until version three.

PR Producer 23:48

“Footage is coming tonight.”

And the deadline didn't move.

five people give notes. nobody decides.

The one that costs agencies most. Every round is a new opinion, not a decision.

CL Client 00:00

“Use any music.”

REPLY · RESOLVE

Until the ad gets muted on Instagram. Licensed tracks only, decided before the edit.

CL Client v7

“It's just a small change.”

REPLY · RESOLVE

Sent at 11pm, after "final". It's never small.

BR Brand team 01:12

“We'll know it when we see it.”

REPLY · RESOLVE

So the edit becomes the brief. Expensive way to find out.

the fix: a 5-line brief.
